THE COLLEGE SERIES

OF

GREEK AND LATIN AUTHORS

Offers the best texts — edited by eminent scholars — equipped with the most helpful apparatus for the student.

FOR
COURSES

The list includes not only the Latin and Greek classics most commonly read in American colleges and universities, but also others suited to such use, but not previously issued in satisfactory editions.

Each volume includes an introduction, a commentary, and other aids that set before the student a clear and scholarly criticism of the author studied.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDY OF THE GREEK DIALECTS, by Professor CARL DARLING BUCK of the University of Chicago, is the latest addition to this series.

According to Professor Oertel of Yale University, "this book will be for a long time to come the best introduction in any language to the study of Greek dialects."

Professor H. N. Smith of Harvard University states: "It is excellent in every respect. I know of nothing like it in any other language."
